

Quality Matters Peer Reviewer Certification Training

The New Mexico Skill Up Network is a Subscriber to Quality Matters (QM).

If you are interested in becoming a Quality Matters Peer Reviewer, contact the Distance Learning Director or Coordinator at your campus. Information concerning Quality Matters can be found on their website at <https://www.qualitymatters.org/>.

“Quality Matters (QM) is a faculty-centered, peer review process that is designed to certify the quality of online courses and online components. QM has received national recognition for its peer-based approach to quality assurance and continuous improvement in online education.

Originating from a Fund for the Improvement of Postsecondary Education (FIPSE) grant project, QM is now a self-supporting organization offering institutional subscriptions and a range of fee-based services including QM-managed course reviews and an array of professional development opportunities.

With nearly 700 current subscribers, ranging from four-year colleges and universities, technical and community colleges to other academic organizations, Quality Matters is the leading provider of tools and processes used to evaluate quality in course design.”¹
